LILUOKALANI MUST PAY TAX

Settlement Made by the Legislature of $7500 Per Year Not Exempt.

Ex-Queen Liluokalani must pay an annual income tax to the amount of $130 upon the settlement of $7500 per year voted her by the last Legislature, Attorney General Dole, in an opinion to Assessor Pratt, which was submitted at yesterday's meeting of the Executive Council says:

"I am in receipt of your request for my opinion whether the settlement of $7500.00 a year upon ex-Queen Liluokalani is exempt from the operation of the income tax law. I think it is not. I am not aware of any principle of law which puts this settlement upon a basis any different from an income derived from a profession, or paid to a Territorial official from the Territorial treasury. The grounds of exemption which apply to the salaries of Federal officials, paid by the United States Government, do not apply to incomes derived from the Territorial treasury. Very truly yours, B. P. DOLE, Attorney General.

CARELESS HACKMAN HEAVILY FINED

Hackmen who swing around street corners at a speed inimical to the lives of pedestrians, and those who persist in taking to the wrong side of the street, received a check in Judge Wilcox' court yesterday morning when hackman Blackburn was fined $50 and costs for running over and seriously injuring Col. A. G. Hawes of San Francisco. The accident took place about two weeks ago and Col. Hawes has been confined since to the residence of F. M. Hatch recovering from three broken ribs and other injuries received at the time. Blackburn testified yesterday that he did not see Col. Hawes, an admission which was bad evidence to the defense.
